Sir:

We had the opportunity of reading some issues of your magazine and we concluded immediately that they must be present in our library for the importance of the trends they represent in nowadays Jewish life.

Nevertheless, we would be facing tremendous difficulties to subscribe regularly to Commentary since Brazilian legislation inflicts many barriers in money exchanging and remitting to abroad, and you don't have representatives in our country.

Thus we would be grateful if we could be granted with a free subscription for our central library, situated in São Paulo. The Ichud Habonim, as you probably know, is a worldwide youth Zionist movement and here in Brazil it congregates more than 1,000 persons in six cities.

Expecting for your cooperation, we want to thank you very much.

Yours faithfully,

---
